

Window in Memory of Minister Unveiled

At the morning service in Calvary United Church a stained glass window was unveiled by Mrs. J. A. Agnew, in memory of her husband, a widely known minister in Western Ontario. The window was donated by the congregation of the church and was inscribed, "To the glory of God and in loving memory of the Rev. John A. Agnew." The Rev. Elgin G. Turnbull conducted the unveiling ceremony.